

Year 6 Homework

WEEKLY TASKS

TTRockstars

“Three times a week for three minutes!”

Use Garage Mode to support you progress through the tables at you pace until you are fluent up to 12 x 12.

Then use Studio Mode to improve your speed and rock status.

READING

We believe that developing reading fluency is the most important skill for future success, which is why we ask parents and families to promote a love of reading at home.

Reading at home and returning your Reading Log - as often as you can!

SPELLINGS

A list of spellings, often following a spelling rule or pattern, will be sent home weekly for everyone to learn.

HALF TERM HOMEWORK TASKS

Remember you can do as many of these tasks as you want. We would like to see at least one of them in school by Monday 20th February 2023.

Write a speech.

Create a speech, that you may have heard a suffragette giving, at a public rally, explaining your reasons for supporting the suffrage movement.

Create a banner

Use the colours associated with the suffragette movement, create a banner, which clearly demonstrates their message.

Design an outfit

Design an outfit, which a suffragette or suffragette supporter could have worn during a protest march, which shows their beliefs in this particular women’s movement.

Create a biography

Using your skills as a writer, find an interesting suffragette, (such as Emmeline Pankhurst, Sylvia Pankhurst, Christabel Pankhurst or Millicent Fawcett) who you could create a biography for.

Create a fact file.

Use your amazing fact finding skills and create a fact file, which explains who the suffragists and suffragettes were.

(Don’t forget to include information about the ‘Cat and Mouse Act,’ which we found out about in our online workshop).
