

Our Year 6 theme for this half term is:
Revolution - Part 2!

English

- Writing a diary entry based on the life of a Victorian workhouse child using emotive language.
- Reading Street Child by Berlie Doherty in reading, and practising comprehension skills.
- Practising specific spelling patterns such as the suffixes 'cial' and 'tial'.

Computing

- Learning about e-safety
- Learning about spreadsheets and blogging

History

- Understanding Victorian era within the whole world timeline
- Learning about Queen Victoria and the changes that happened to Britain during her reign.

R.E.

- Communication through prayer
- The birth of Jesus

Music

- Guitar - playing a song (Achy Breaky heart)
- The Sorcerer's Apprentice - listening

Art

- Repeated patterns - studying William Morris

Maths

- Strategies for multiplication and division using standard written methods.
- Factors, multiples, prime numbers and square numbers
- Calculating with fractions

P.E.

- Football skills
- Hockey skills
- Synchronised routines in gymnastics

D.T.

- Designing a bridge - experimenting with shape and structure.

Spanish

- Describing my town.
- Presenting myself

P.S.H.E.

- Relationships - isotope friendships
- Positive and negative friendships

How can you help?

- Please ensure that you continue to read with your child daily; they still need constant practice
- Practise times tables facts as well as speed addition facts daily
- No earrings are to be worn for P.E.
- Remain mindful of social distancing