

Use reusable and paper decorations so they can be recycled.

Streamers and fabric bunting look great!

Balloons are so dangerous for sea animals and take years to degrade. Can you get reusable balloons instead or if you do use helium balloons make sure you recycle them!

Go Green for the Queen this Jubilee!

It's important to celebrate the Queen's Jubilee but that shouldn't mean animals should suffer!

Did you know B&M now sell a range of eco friendly party cups and plates etc and its all low cost!

To find ways to help our oceans, follow me @billies_eco_journey on Instagram.

Can you hire reusable cups, plates serving dishes etc? There are lots of companies that hire them for as little as £8 for a party of 30!!

Have you thought about wooden cutlery instead of single use plastic?

Can you use bamboo tableware it's a similar price as plastic and if wiped clean can be recycled!
