Congratulations to Miss Stone

Miss Stone will be having a baby in December and, I'm sure you would like to join with me in congratulating Miss Stone and her partner. Due to medical reasons, she has decided to start her maternity from Friday 20th October.

Mr Flaherty will be teaching the class next half term. The children are familiar with him as he has been covering the class during Miss Stone's absence.

This week there will be interviews held and the individual appointed will be the class teacher for Dingo class from January 2024.

Miss Stone has really enjoyed her time with the class and will miss them, but is excited for the next chapter of being a mum.

Kind regards

Mrs Carlyle
